

Fiber Focus: Soy

Soy fabric is made from soybean waste from the tofu manufacturing process. Soy fabric is durable with a soft hand, excellent absorbency, good drape, comfort and thermal retention. It can be used in blends to resemble more expensive fibers such as silk and cashmere due to its lower cost and desirable characteristics.

Textiles 10th Edition

Jersey Knit Soy Fabric

Related Articles:

*Soybean Protein Fiber: Fiber, Yarn, Fabric and Apparel More...

*The soybean is a type of legume native to East Asia. More...

Related Products:

Soy Protein Fabric:
Pack of 50 Swatches $5.00

Industry News

Nonprofit, ANew Launched to Repurpose Office Furniture

Pantone selects "Blue Iris" as 2008 Color of the Year.

Twitchell Corp. donates Earthtex® fabric to Brad Pitt's "Pink Project" in New Orleans.

Featured Product

TEXTILE VIDEOS

TFC, Inc. is proud to offer these eleven textile videos! These videos range from 35-57 minutes long and are $58.95 each!! Topics include various techniques of traditional weaving, spinning, printing and dyeing from around the world. Also available is the two disc set, World Weaving Traditions for $89.95. These videos are a great reference for you and your students, demonstrating many hand processes and techniques that have been vital to the textile industry for centuries!

Adinkra: Printed Ceremonial Cloths of Ghana

Ajrakh: Mordant Resist, Batik, and Tie Dye

Backstrap Weaving

Batik in Java

Thai Hilltribe Embroideries

The Ikats of Sumba

Traditional Felt Making in Turkey

Traditional Peruvian Weaving

Traditional Silk: Weaving in Thailand

World Spinning

World Weaving Traditions: A Moving Encyclopedia of Traditional Techniques (Double Disc Set) $89.95

Textile Mania Instructor Review Now Available!!

<http://textilemania.textilefabric.com>

Contact us for pricing!